Re: NIKE, Inc. and Converse Inc. v. Wu et al., No. 2013 Civ. 8012 (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Mr. De Palma:

My firm represents Next Investments, LLC ("Next"), Assignee to the Judgment awarded to Plaintiffs NIKE, Inc. and Converse Inc. in the above-referenced action. By letter dated October 10, 2017, we provided Bank of China with notice of the order entered by the Court in this action on that day (the "Order").

Attached as Exhibit A is a copy of the final order that was signed on October 20, 2017 in the above-referenced action (the "Final Order"). Among other things, the Final Order holds that the bank accounts identified in the Order are the property of Judgment Debtors in this action subject to the terms of the Judgment, including the permanent asset freeze set forth therein.¹

We are providing you with notice of the Final Order because, as noted in our October 10, 2017 letter, Judgment Debtors² offer to accept payment via wire transfer to Bank of China accounts for counterfeit products sold in connection with at least 10 of their email addresses, googlejerseys@msn.com, nflshopes@msn.com, georgechen35@yahoo.com, topserviceforyou@gmail.com, sandyonlyone@hotmail.com, jerseystops@gmail.com, shoescapsxyz.com@gmail.com, shoesspring@hotmail.com, lovestitchedjerseys@gmail.com, and occidentsale@outlook.com. The following bank account information was provided by

² Judgment Debtors refers to the entities and individuals listed in Exhibits 1, 2 and 3 to the Judgment, which is attached to the Final Order at Attachment 1. Pursuant to the Final Order, the websites and bank accounts identified in Attachments 3 and 4 thereto also are subject to the terms of the Judgment.

No. 2013 Civ. 8012 (CM)

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

WHEREAS, this Court entered judgment in the above-captioned action on August 20, 2015 (the Court's "Judgment"), granting the motion of Plaintiffs NIKE, Inc. ("NIKE") and Converse, Inc. ("Converse") for a default judgment and permanently enjoining all Defendants as set forth in the Exhibits to the Judgment ("Judgment Debtors") and their "officers, directors, agents, representatives, successors or assigns, and all persons acting in concert or in participation with any of them" from, among other things, using trademarks owned by Plaintiffs ("Plaintiffs' Marks") or selling counterfeit versions of Plaintiffs' products ("Counterfeit Products"), registering or using any domain names incorporating or otherwise making use of Plaintiffs' Marks, further infringing Plaintiffs' Marks or competing unfairly with Plaintiffs in any way, and forming new entities or associations, or utilizing any other device for the purpose of circumventing or otherwise avoiding the prohibitions set forth in the injunction. A true and correct copy of the Judgment and Exhibits 1, 2 and 3 thereto, which reflected the known information about Judgment Debtors, including the email addresses, websites and bank accounts used in connection with their counterfeiting operation at the time the Judgment was entered, is attached hereto as Attachment 1;

WHEREAS, the Court's Judgment granted Plaintiffs NIKE and Converse's request for an accounting of profits and the Court awarded equitable relief against Judgment Debtors totaling more than $1 billion;

WHEREAS, Next Investments, LLC ("Next" together with NIKE and Converse, "Plaintiffs"), Assignee to the Judgment, has moved ex parte against Judgment Debtors for an order to show cause (1) why Judgment Debtors should not be held in contempt of court; (2) why the Court should not find that additional email addresses identified by Plaintiffs listed in Attachment 2 hereto (the "Additional Email Addresses") are being used in concert or participation with Judgment Debtors to violate the Judgment; and (3) why the Court should not find that additional websites identified by Plaintiffs listed in Attachment 3 hereto (the "Additional Websites"), and any bank accounts associated with the Additional Emails or Additional Websites, including but not limited to the bank accounts listed in Attachment 4 hereto (the "Additional Bank Accounts") are property of Judgment Debtors subject to the terms of the Judgment. Next also moved for (1) a temporary asset restraining order; (2) an order to temporarily disable certain domain names; (3) an order authorizing expedited discovery; and (4) an order authorizing service by electronic mail;

WHEREAS, having reviewed Next's Memorandum of Law and supporting declarations, the Court signed an order on October 10, 2017 ordering Judgment Debtors to appear before this Court on October 20, 2017 (the "Order"), to show cause (1) why Judgment Debtors should not be held in contempt of court; (2) why the Court should not find that the Additional Email Addresses are being used in concert or participation with Judgment Debtors to violate the Judgment; and (3) why the Court should not find that the Additional Websites and the Additional Bank Accounts are property of Judgment Debtors subject to the terms of the Judgment; and further granted Next's application for a temporary asset restraining order, order to temporarily suspend certain domain names, order authorizing expedited discovery, and order authorizing service by electronic means;

WHEREAS, Judgment Debtors were served with the Order by email on October 12, 2017, pursuant to the alternative service provisions contained in the Order;

WHEREAS, on October 19, 2017, Next filed a Certificate of Service demonstrating that Judgment Debtors were served via email with the Order;

WHEREAS, Judgment Debtors failed to submit any papers opposing entry of an order (1) finding Judgment Debtors to be in contempt of court; (2) finding that the Additional Email Addresses are being used in concert or participation with Judgment Debtors to violate the Judgment; and (3) that the Additional Websites and Additional Bank Accounts are property of Judgment Debtors subject to the terms of the Judgment; and

WHEREAS, Judgment Debtors failed to appear before the Court on October 20, 2017;

The Court now finds the following:

a. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing that this Court's Judgment was a clear and unambiguous court order prohibiting Judgment Debtors from, among other things, making use of Plaintiffs' Marks, or any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of Plaintiffs' Marks, or any mark confusingly similar thereto or likely to dilute or detract from the Plaintiffs' Marks in connection with the manufacturing, distributing, delivering, shipping, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, selling or offering for sale Counterfeit Products or any other products confusingly similar to Plaintiffs' products, or that otherwise bear, contain, display or utilize any of the Plaintiffs' Marks, and registering or using any domain names incorporating, in whole or in part, any word or mark identical or similar to the name NIKE or Converse or otherwise making of the Plaintiffs' Marks;

b. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing that this Court's Judgment was a clear and unambiguous order requiring Judgment Debtors to account for their profits and make payments towards satisfying the more $1 billion judgment;

c. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing by clear and convincing proof that Judgment Debtors, through use of the Additional Email Addresses and Additional Websites, have not complied with the Judgment by continuing to use counterfeits or infringements of Plaintiffs' Marks in connection with the manufacture, exportation, importation, distribution, marketing, advertising, offer for sale and or/sale of Counterfeit Products, by continuing to operate websites incorporating words or marks identical or similar to Plaintiffs' Marks, including in the domain names of certain Additional Websites, by not accounting for their profits; and by not making any payments towards satisfying the more than $1 billion judgment;

d. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing that Judgment Debtors have not exercised reasonable diligence in attempting to comply with the Judgment, as Judgment Debtors have continued their counterfeiting operation, have not provided an accounting of profits, and have made no attempt to satisfy the more $1 billion judgment;

e. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing that the Additional Email Addresses are being used in concert or participation with Judgment Debtors to violate the Judgment;

f. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing that the Additional Websites and Additional Bank Accounts are the property of the Judgment Debtors subject to the terms set forth in the Judgment;

g. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing that Judgment Debtors continue to operate their counterfeiting operation through the use of additional aliases associated with the Additional Websites, Additional Email Addresses, and the Additional Bank Accounts (the “Judgment Debtors’ Aliases”), as set forth in Attachment 6 hereto;

h. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that they are likely to succeed in showing that Judgment Debtors have a bad faith intent to profit by associating themselves with Plaintiffs and the Plaintiffs’ Marks without Plaintiffs’ authorization;

i. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that Judgment Debtors have gone to great lengths to conceal themselves and their ill-gotten proceeds from Plaintiffs’ and this Court’s detection, including by providing intentionally deceptive contact information and using multiple false identities and addresses associated with their operations;

j. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that Judgment Debtors, or other persons acting in concert with Judgment Debtors, would likely destroy, move, hide, or otherwise make the Counterfeit Products, Judgment Debtors’ means of selling and distributing the Counterfeit Products, bank accounts used in connection with the sale of Counterfeit Products and Judgment Debtors’ counterfeiting operation, records relating to the ultimate disposition of Judgment Debtors’ ill-gotten proceeds, and business records related thereto, inaccessible to Plaintiffs or the Court if Plaintiffs were to proceed on notice to the Judgment Debtors, thus frustrating the ultimate relief that Plaintiffs seek in this action;

k. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that the harm to Plaintiffs from the denial of the requested order outweighs the harm to Judgment Debtors' legitimate interests against granting such an order; and

l. Plaintiffs have demonstrated that the entry of an order other than the requested order would not adequately achieve the purposes of the Lanham Act and Plaintiffs' rights pursuant to the Judgment, including Plaintiffs' rights to the monetary damages set forth in the Judgment.

m. Next has provided adequate security for the payment of such damages as any person may be entitled to recover as a result of a wrongful restraint hereunder, by posting a $10,000 bond in accordance with the Order;

n. Judgment Debtors were properly served via electronic mail with the Order on October 12, 2017, and Judgment Debtors had proper notice of the hearing to be held on October 20, 2017 before this Court; and

o. None of Judgment Debtors have filed a response to Next's moving papers or otherwise appeared in this action.

Accordingly, this Court finds that entry of an order (1) finding Judgment Debtors to be in contempt of court; (2) finding that the Additional Email Addresses are being used in concert or participation with Judgment Debtors to violate the Judgment; and (3) that the Additional Websites and Additional Bank Accounts are property of Judgment Debtors subject to the terms of the Judgment.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Judgment Debtors are in contempt of court;

2. the Additional Email Addresses are being used in concert or participation with Judgment Debtors to violate the Judgment; and

3. that the Additional Websites and Additional Bank Accounts are property of Judgment Debtors subject to the terms of the Judgment, including the injunction and liability for the award set forth therein.

4. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in accordance with Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, New York Civil Practice Law and Rules § 5222, 15 U.S.C. § 1116(a), and paragraph 13 of the Judgment, Judgment Debtors, their officers, directors, agents, representatives, successors or assigns, and all persons acting in concert or in participation with any of them, including Judgment Debtors' Aliases and any third parties, including third party financial service providers, receiving actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, are restrained and enjoined from transferring, withdrawing or disposing of any money or other assets into or out of any accounts held by, associated with, or utilized by Judgment Debtors, including the Additional Bank Accounts listed in Attachment 4 hereto, regardless of whether such money or assets are held in the U.S. or abroad. This includes but is not limited to any money or assets held with: (a) PayPal, Inc.; (b) Bank of China, Industrial and Commercial Bank of China, JPMorgan Chase, China Construction Bank, and USAA Federal Savings Bank, including but not limited to bank accounts set forth in Attachment 4; (c) Western Union; (d) MoneyGram; (e) MasterCard, Visa, American Express and/or Discover; (f) Payitrust Co., Ltd.; (g) Realpay; (h) Moneybrace; (i) Vimpay Co. Ltd.; (j) Pmnorth; (k) Promptlypayments; (l) Wedopay; (m) ECPSS; and (n) GlibPay.

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that upon (2) business days' written notice to the Court and Next's counsel, any Judgment Debtor or affected third party may, upon proper showing, appear and move for dissolution or modification of the provisions of this order.

6. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that within (2) days from the date of this order, Next shall serve this order on Judgment Debtors at the email addresses set forth in the Exhibits to the Judgment in Attachment 1 hereto and in Attachment 2 hereto, which Plaintiffs have demonstrated will provide adequate notice to Judgment Debtors.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, upon a showing that Judgment Debtors are continuing to sell Counterfeit Products on newly-detected additional websites ("Newly Detected Additional Websites"), Next may move to amend this order to extend the application of the relief granted herein to the to the Newly-Detected Additional Websites.

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiffs may continue to seek expedited discovery by providing actual notice of this order to any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, merchant account providers, payment providers, third party processors, or credit card associations, which have provided services, received payment, or held assets for any Judgment Debtor any of Judgment Debtor's operations, any of the Additional Websites, or for any other website owned or controlled by any Judgment Debtors, including without limitation, PayPal, MasterCard, Visa, American Express, and Discover (collectively, "Third Party Financial Service Providers"); and

9. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, within ten (10) days of receiving actual notice of this order by personal service or otherwise, all Third Party Financial Service Providers must provide to Next's counsel all documents and records in their possession, custody or control, whether located in the U.S. or abroad, relating to any financial accounts (including but not limited to any savings, checking, money market, or payment processing accounts) held by, associated with, or utilized the Judgment Debtors, their officers, directors, agents, employees, representatives, successors or assigns, and all persons acting in concert or in participation with any of them. This includes all documents and records relating to:

- a. the Additional Websites and any other websites registered by Judgment Debtors, including the identities of the individuals or entities that registered and operated the Additional Websites;
- b. the manufacturing, exporting, importing, distributing, marketing, advertising, offering for sale, and/or selling of Counterfeit Products by Judgment Debtors, their officers, directors, agents, employees, representatives, successors or assigns, and all persons acting in concert or in participation with any of them;
